Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 300 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and University's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

The Ferguson Center, completed in 1973, was named for Hill Ferguson, a member of the Board of Trustees. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built just to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room located on the first floor is the perfect place to unwind, test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or ping-pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a ping-pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape to the daily pressures of college life.

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

The newly expanded Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area, which opened in the summer of 2003, features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space.

MAL M. MOORE

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

The University of Alabama's Director of Athletics since 1999, Mal Moore has made an indelible mark on one of the nation's most storied athletic programs, leading a department that has enjoyed tremendous success athletically and academically while enjoying an unprecedented period of growth during his tenure.

Through his guidance, Alabama's athletic department remains focused on his vision of having all Crimson Tide athletic teams and student-athletes competitive at the highest level nationally while continuing to elevate athletic facilities at the Capstone to premier status nationally for all sports.

During his tenure as Director of Athletics, Moore has overseen more than $200 million of capital improvements to University of Alabama athletic facilities. Those projects have encompassed the entire scope of all Crimson Tide athletic programs and have benefitted every Alabama student-athlete, coach, and administrator.

Throughout his multi-faceted career, Moore has worked with a diversified field of constituents, from fellow coaches and former players, to fans and the business community. All of those experiences and relationships - in addition to his ability to unify those many constituents - have made him the ideal person to lead Alabama athletics in the 21st century.

His leadership has been crucial in helping guide Alabama through a period that has been, at times, extremely challenging. His guidance and effort helped Alabama athletics weather the storm, while continuing to move in a positive direction toward a future that holds great promise.

Moore's dedication to, and love of, the University of Alabama was recognized on March 28, 2007, when as a permanent tribute to his lifelong contributions to The University of Alabama, the Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama System officially dedicated the facility formerly known as The Football Building as the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility.

Under Moore's direction, Alabama's athletic teams have produced three national championships – the 2009 football title and the 2002 and 2011 NCAA gymnastics championships – as well as several Southeastern Conference championships, winning titles in football, gymnastics, men's basketball, women's golf, men's golf, men's cross country, baseball and softball; taking SEC tournament titles in both baseball and softball. Alabama athletes have earned some of the highest honors the SEC and NCAA have to offer, including SEC Athlete of the Year, SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, NCAA Top VIII, NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and NCAA Sportsperson of the Year. These honors are over and above the individual conference and national titles that Alabama athletes continue to bring home to the Capstone on a regular basis.

In addition to making his mark on Alabama, Moore has also had a national impact as a key member of several prestigious NCAA and college football committees. Moore has served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, the SEC Athletic Directors Bowl Advisory Committee and the Big Six Conferences Minority Coaches Forum.

Moore's distinguished record of service to UA began more than 50 years ago when he joined the Crimson Tide football squad as a scholarship player for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1958-62. Moore has the distinction of being a part of eight national championship teams (1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979, 1992 and 2009) with the first coming as a player, the next six during his coaching career and the most recent during his tenure as director of athletics. As a player and coach, he was also part of 14 SEC championships and 27 bowl trips. He is the only individual connected with the Alabama program to be a part of eight national championships.

During a coaching career that spanned 31 years, Moore spent 22 of those at Alabama with stops at Montana State, Notre Dame and the NFL's St. Louis/Phoenix Cardinals. At Alabama, Moore started as a graduate assistant under Coach Bryant in 1964, then as defensive backfield coach for six seasons (1965-70) before becoming quarterbacks coach from 1971-82, serving as the Tide's first offensive coordinator starting in 1975. He would go on to coordinate all of the offensive plays for several of Alabama's national championship football teams.

A 1963 graduate of The University of Alabama, Moore holds both an undergraduate degree in sociology and a 1964 Master's degree in secondary education from the Capstone. Moore was born December 19, 1939, in Dozier, Ala. He and the late Mrs. Charlotte Moore have one daughter, Mrs. Steve (Heather) Cook of Scottsdale, Ariz., a granddaughter, Anna Lee, and a grandson, Charles Cannon.

As president of The University of Alabama, Dr. Robert E. Witt has committed the University to an ambitious plan for academic growth and achievement.

His goals include increasing enrollment by recruiting academically talented students from Alabama and across the country, stimulating significant growth in research and strongly supporting the state's economic development efforts. Under his leadership, enrollment has reached record levels and now numbers more than 30,000.

Academic quality and scholarship opportunities for deserving students have increased significantly. The University ranks 6th nationally among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars and leads the nation in the number of students named to USA Today's All-USA College Academic Teams.

Since its inception in 2003, the University's Honors College has grown exponentially, and currently enrolls more than 1,300 freshmen each year. UA's loyal alumni and friends continue to provide a high level of support to the University, with private giving having an important impact on the University's ability to fund scholarships, faculty support and construction projects.

Prior to joining The University of Alabama in 2003, Dr. Witt spent 35 years as a faculty member and administrator in the University of Texas System. He received his B.A. in economics from Bates College, his M.B.A. from Tuck School at Dartmouth College, and his Ph.D. from Penn State University. He serves on the boards of directors of the West Alabama Chamber of Commerce, the Black Warrior Council Boy Scouts of America, and the American Cast Iron Pipe Company. He is a member of the Tuscaloosa County Industrial Development Authority. Dr. Witt and his wife, Sandee, have five grandchildren.

THE SEC TOURNAMENT

MARCH 8-11
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
NEW ORLEANS ARENA

The Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournament returns to the Crescent City as New Orleans, La., will host the 2012 event. It is the third time the city has hosted the tournament and the first for the New Orleans Arena. This will be the fifth time state of Louisiana.

COLEMAN COLISEUM

Since 1968 Coleman Coliseum has served as the home court of the Crimson Tide basketball team and the venerable structure has seen more than 450 Alabama wins under its distinctive arched roof.

Originally known as Memorial Coliseum, it remains one of college basketball's finest facilities and was decades ahead of its time when originally constructed at a cost of $4.2 million. The structure occupies two acres of land with the roof reaching 90 feet above the playing surface and almost 100,000 square feet of space in the main seating bowl. At the time, the Coliseum's capacity of 15,032 was easily the biggest in the Southeastern Conference and the fifth biggest in the nation.

In 1988, the arena was re-dedicated as Coleman Coliseum in honor of Jeff Coleman a longtime Crimson Tide historian, business manager and alumni director that served on the committee that oversaw the Coliseum's planning and construction.

Coleman Coliseum saw its greatest transformation prior to the 2005-06 season when the entire facility was near gutted and updated in grand fashion. Behind a bold modernized facade, the interior lobbies and concourses were expanded and upgraded along with offices, locker rooms and support facilities. In the main seating area, 15,316 new seats, all theater style and many of them padded, welcomed raucous crowds along with a new club area long the east side of the court. However, the improvements didn't stop there as the consistently evolving facility continues to receive upgrades each season to keep it at the forefront of basketball facilities in the nation. The most recent included a new state-of-the-art high-definition scoreboard hanging over center court and additional courtside seating to bring the facility's capacity to 15,383.

The Coliseum also features an auxiliary gym which houses two full-size courts at the team's disposal for team practices and individual workouts. Also housed within the facility are state-of-the-art video, training, weight and equipment rooms.

CRIMSON TIDE SPORTS NETWORK

The Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN) will bring Alabama basketball to basketball fans around the state by radio on the Crimson Tide Sports Network and to fans around the world via the internet with a link through the Tide's official website, www.rolltide.com and on XM Radio.

The CTSN's basketball crew includes Chris Stewart calling the play-by-play and former Tide player Bryan Passink providing color and analysis. Tom Stipe is the producer/engineer for the radio broadcast crew.

Alabama's basketball broadcasts are produced by the Crimson Tide Sports Network, which is a joint venture between Learfield Communications of Jefferson City, Mo. and IMG College of Winston-Salem, N.C. CTSN is headquartered in Tuscaloosa with Jim Carabin as its general manager. CTSN sales executives include Chris Bean, Tom Brooks, Jay McPhillips, Chris Hand and Bryant Bruce.

Game day coverage of Alabama basketball begins 30 minutes before tipoff time and includes the pre-game comments of Coach Anthony Grant. After each game, the crew talks with coach Grant and a Bama player who made an impact on the game.

HEY, COACH!

It's the greeting Alabama fans typically use to open the call: "Hey, Coach," and that's also the name of CTSN's weekly coaches' call-in show. From August through Nov. 24, "Hey, Coach!" airs every Thursday night from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. CT. The show moves to Monday nights from 6 to 7:30 pm. CT beginning on Monday, Nov. 28. Tom Roberts plays host to the show live at Buffalo Wild Wings in Tuscaloosa. Coach Anthony Grant joins the show during the basketball season to answer questions from Bama fans on the phone and at the restaurant. Bama players often join the show.

THE ANTHONY GRANT SHOW

Basketball fans get an insider's view each week during the season on "The Anthony Grant Show." The Tide's head coach offers insight on Alabama's week, previewing the games ahead and reviewing the games just played. Chris Stewart is the host of the 30-minute show. The show airs from January through March 4. It will air Sunday at 10:30 p.m. CT on Birmingham's CBS-42, Sunday at 10 p.m. on Montgomery's WNCF-32, Monday at 6:30 p.m. on Tuscaloosa's WVUA and Wednesday at 4 p.m. on Comcast Sports Southeast.

CRIMSON TIDE THIS WEEK

Bama fans can see more of the Tide each week on CTSN's 30-minute weekly television show, "Crimson Tide This Week." Chris Stewart hosts this weekly look at all the Tide's teams with emphasis on basketball from November through the NCAA Tournament. The show airs on Birmingham's CBS 42 Saturday at 11 a.m. The show will also air on Comcast Sports Southeast, WVUA-7 Tuscaloosa and WNCF-32 Montgomery.

2011-12 SEASON PREVIEW

INSIDE

Season Preview	12-13

POINT GUARDS

The Crimson Tide enters the 2011-12 season with the benefit of two veteran point guards in sophomore Trevor Releford and junior Ben Eblen, both of whom were critical to the Tide's success last season. Releford earned the starting role as a freshman and showed ability and acumen beyond his years in leading the Tide to 25 wins, an SEC Western Division title and an appearance in the NIT championship game. Starting in 36 of the Tide's 37 games, he became just the fourth true freshman in UA history to start at point guard in a season opener.

During the Tide's NIT run, he averaged 15.4 points and 3.4 assists per game en route to earning all-NIT honors. Those five games were just an extension on the excellent season he assembled during SEC play as one of the top freshman guards in the conference. Against league foes he averaged 11.5 points per game on 48.5 percent shooting and was the league's top freshman in assist-to-turnover ratio. For his exploits in the league, he was selected to the conference's all-freshman team.

Eblen served as Releford's more-than-ready understudy in his second season at UA while averaging just under 10 minutes per game. The prototypical point guard, Eblen is extremely adept at putting the ball in scorers' hands and has recorded more assists than points in his two seasons at UA.

Retin Obasohan will provide additional depth at the position for the Tide. The newcomer from Belgium brings another element to the position with his strong frame at the top of the offense. Over the summer months, the 18-year-old was a member of the Belgian Under-20 National Team that competed in the European Championships where he averaged 6.0 points, 2.1 assists and 2.1 steals per game. He has consistently competed in older age-group play as a member of the Belgian U18 and U16 national teams.

GUARDS

Alabama's perimeter will feature the team's biggest influx of newcomers as three newcomers are expected to provide a scoring punch from outside that was sorely lacking on last year's team. Charles Hankerson, Jr., is the only true wing player returning from last season as Senario Hillman and Charvez Davis both graduated while Andrew Steele was lost for medical reasons.

Junior Tony Mitchell will also see time at his natural position on the wing, but may be counted on to step inside as well to provide depth to a frontcourt lacking experienced numbers. Last season Mitchell earned all-SEC honors and was second on the team in scoring and rebounds with 15.2 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Playing in Grant's fast-paced system will continue to allow the versatile Mitchell to affect the game in many ways.

Joining the pair of returning perimeter players is a trio of highly regarded freshmen in Levi Randolph, Rodney Cooper and Trevor Lacey. Randolph was a four-star recruit by both ESPN.com and rivals.com and the eighth best shooting guard in his class. A two-time all-state selection, he was also the 2010-11 Gatorade Alabama Boys Basketball Player of the Year after averaging 19.5 points and 5.9 rebounds his senior season. Cooper promises to aid in the Tide's three-point shooting efforts as the 2011 class' 35th best shooting guard. During his senior season, Cooper averaged 31.3 points and 10.4 rebounds and was as a Parade first team All-American.

The talented corps of new talent is further bolstered by the addition of two-time Alabama Mr. Basketball, Trevor Lacey. A five-star prospect, Lacey averaged 31.4 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.1 steals and 2.6 assists in leading Butler High School to its third state title in four years in 2011. The four-time first team all-state selection also earned Parade All-America honors and was a two-time state-finals MVP.

FORWARDS AND CENTERS

Alabama's frontcourt features the team's lone senior and its most decorated player in Ja-Mychal Green. Last season he emerged as a consistent force for the Tide under the basket with a team high 15.5 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. The SEC's coaches and media took notice, naming Green to the all-SEC first team. His strong play continued in the postseason where he scored 22 points against Colorado in the NIT semifinals to propel the Tide to the title game and earn all-NIT honors for himself along the way.

Green's presence will be counted on even more following the graduation of his accomplice in the paint for the past two seasons, Chris Hines. Tony Mitchell is capable and may often be counted on to spend time at the four to help the Tide's frontcourt while the team's younger forwards and centers continue to develop.

The other most seasoned frontcourt player is sophomore Carl Engstrom. The 7-foot Swede showed tremendous growth in his first season at UA and spend the summer competing as a member of the Swedish under 20 national team. With just three seasons of organized basketball experience on his resume, there still remains ample room for improvement to match his imposing frame.

The Tide added two newcomers to its frontcourt for 2011-12, however, it will only have the services of Nick Jacobs for this bulk of the season as Moussa Gueye suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament during an offseason pick-up game.

Jacobs was a four-star recruit was ranked the No. 10 forward in his and class and the 85th player nationally. He averaged 23.0 points and 13.0 rebounds during his senior year in which he led his South Atlanta team to the 3A State Championship and was named 3A Player of the Year.

THE SCHEDULE

The Crimson Tide will face what should prove to be one of the most difficult schedules in the nation in 2011-12. Fifteen home dates, plus a contest in Birmingham, Ala., highlight a schedule that features at least 15 contests against teams that finished 2010-11 ranked in the top 100 of the RPI.

"This is as strong of a non-conference schedule as Alabama has faced in recent years," Grant said. "We'll face a Final Four team in VCU, NCAA Tournament teams in Oakland, Georgetown, Kansas State and programs such as Dayton and Oklahoma State that advanced to the NIT. Plus there are seven other very good programs we could potentially face in the Puerto Rico Tip-Off."

The Crimson Tide's home non-conference schedule is highlighted by a visit from VCU (Nov. 27), which advanced to the Final Four last season, and perennial Big East power Georgetown (Dec. 1). Off campus, Alabama will host Oklahoma State (Dec. 21) at the Birmingham Jefferson Convention Complex. The game, which is included in the Tide's season-ticket package, will give fans in Birmingham the chance to cheer on UA in their backyard.

"Playing in Birmingham is good for us and our program," Grant said. "It gives our fans in that area an opportunity to see us play a quality Big 12 opponent in Oklahoma State. We played them in Oklahoma City last year and are looking forward to playing them in Alabama this season."

The team opens up the 2011-12 campaign at home on Nov. 11 against North Florida followed by a contest against Oakland on Nov. 14. The Golden Grizzlies advanced to the NCAA Tournament last season and also had a marquee win over Tennessee in Knoxville, Tenn.

Three games in Puerto Rico follow with the Tide opening up against Maryland on Nov. 17. The second game of the tipoff will come against either Colorado or Wichita State, both of which UA faced in the NIT final four last season. The final game on the island will come against either Temple, Iona, Western Michigan or Purdue.

Home games against in-state foe Alabama A&M (Nov. 23) and VCU close out the first month of the season. December begins with the Tide hosting Georgetown in the Big East/SEC Challenge on Dec. 1. The Tide's first true road test comes on Dec. 7 when Grant returns to his alma mater, Dayton. UA then returns home to host Detroit on Dec. 11, before tackling final exams and traveling to Trevor Releford's hometown of Kansas City, Mo., on Dec. 17 to face Kansas State.

The 14-game non-conference schedule wraps up with the Oklahoma State game, a home date against Jacksonville (Dec. 29) and a visit to Georgia Tech (Jan. 3).

"The non-conference schedule presents a lot of different styles of play, challenges and road environments that will prepare us for the conference season," Grant said.

SEC action begins Jan. 7 when the Tide plays at Georgia. UA's home SEC opponents include all five Western Division foes as well as Vanderbilt, Florida and Tennessee from the Eastern Division. All 16 of the Tide's SEC games will be televised with six carried by ESPN or ESPN2 and the Jan. 21 game at Kentucky being televised by CBS.

Anthony GRANT

Anthony Grant enters his third season on the Crimson Tide bench with plenty of momentum following a season that saw his team's aggressive, disruptive and disciplined style produce wins and excitement in just his second season in Tuscaloosa.

With a full year in his system to acclimate themselves to producing 94 feet of pressure on both offense and defense, his 2010-11 team rebounded from a trying start to win 25 games and the Southeastern Conference Western Division title. Renewed enthusiasm surrounded the team in the form of five sellout crowds at Coleman Coliseum as fans helped make the Tide's home court one of the toughest in the nation with UA posting a sterling 19-0 home record.

Three of those home wins came in the Tide's first postseason appearance since 2007 with a berth in the National Invitation Tournament. Harnessing the frustration of just barely missing out on the NCAA field the Tide cruised through its first three NIT opponents by an average of 15 points to advance to Madison Square Garden and the NIT Final Four for the sixth time in school history. A victory over Colorado propelled the Tide to its second NIT championship game where it fell to Wichita State.

Along the way to the NIT final, Grant's style of play helped make the Tide one of the best defenses in SEC history as UA allowed just 59.4 points per game, the top mark in the SEC and the eighth best in the nation. That average was the 10th best in SEC history and the best since the implementation of the shot clock.

On the recruiting trail, his resurgent Tide coupled with his high-energy style of play has drawn some of the nation's top recruits to Alabama. His incoming 2011 class was ranked as high as No. 5 nationally by rivals.com with four top-100 prospects.

His teams have been just as successful in the classroom with his 2009-10 team posting a perfect 1,000 score in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, the fourth one of his teams has achieved the feat as he boasts a career APR score of 983. In 2011, three of his recruits, Carl Engstrom, Charles Hankerson, Jr. and Trevor Releford were named to the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll.

In his first season at UA, Grant inherited a roster that had lost its top returning scorer and was further decimated by season-ending injuries. Despite this adversity, Grant's first team at UA scrapped its way to a 17-15 record with tenacious defense and his trademarked 94 feet of intensity on both ends of the court.

That 17-15 mark included three 1-point losses in which the Tide fell on the final possession and only three losses by greater than a 10-point margin. While forging his squad's identity he was able to shed the heartbreaking losses and rally the team to three wins in the final four games of the season and a win over the No. 15 Michigan at the Old Spice Classic.

Grant took the reins of the Tide on March 29, 2009, after a three-year stint at Virginia Commonwealth University where he led the Rams to a 24-10 record in 2008-09 and a No. 11 seed in the NCAA Tournament before falling to UCLA in the final seconds, 65-64. The NCAA appearance was the second in Grant's three-year tenure at VCU and third straight postseason appearance. At VCU, he amassed a 76-25 (.752) record and a 45-9 (.833) mark in Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) games.

Additionally, his Rams won three-straight CAA regular-season championships and two CAA Tournament titles under his watch. In his two NCAA Tournament appearances he has a 1-2 record with a 79-77 upset win over Duke in the 2007 tournament. That season saw Grant lead the Rams to a program best 28-7 record and CAA Coach of the Year honors.

At VCU, Grant continued his legacy of developing future NBA stars as Eric Maynor was selected in the first round, 20th overall by the Utah Jazz. Under Grant's tutelage, Maynor became VCU's first lottery selection in 16 years and its first-ever first-round pick.

Maynor became the 13th Grant coached or recruited player and eighth first-rounder, to be selected in the NBA draft. In 2010 VCU's Larry Sanders became the 14th as the virtually un-recruited forward was taken 15th overall by Milwaukee Bucks with a year of tutelage under Grant.

A Miami, Fla., native, Grant is no stranger to the Southeastern Conference having served 10 years on the staff at Florida, five years (1996-2001) as an assistant coach and five years as associate head coach under Billy Donovan (2002-06). Grant helped lead the Gators to their first national title in 2006 and laid the groundwork for UF's 2007 national championship before departing for VCU.

While on the Florida staff, the Gators won the SEC Tournament in 2005 and 2006, captured three SEC Eastern Division titles (2000, 2001 and 2002) and earned back-to-back SEC Championships in 2000 and 2001. In 1999 and 2000, the program made its first back-to-back 'Sweet 16' appearances in school history and appeared in the national championship game in 2000. During Grant's time in Gainesville, the Gators advanced to the NCAA Tournament in eight straight seasons and compiled a 226-98 (.698) record.

Grant followed Donovan to Florida in 1996 after spending two seasons at Marshall (1994-96) as Donovan's top assistant. Prior to that, he spent one season as an assistant coach at Stetson (1993-94). Grant began his coaching career in the high school ranks in his hometown of Miami, Fla., where he won three state titles and was nationally ranked five times as an assistant at Miami Senior High School (1987-92) before serving one season as head coach at Miami Central High School (1992-93).

Four of his last seven recruiting classes at UF were ranked in the top five nationally. At VCU his 2007 recruiting class was ranked as the fifth best in the mid-major ranks.

Dan HIPSHER

Dan Hipsher is in his third season at the University of Alabama on head coach Anthony Grant's staff, however, he is no stranger to either college basketball or Coach Grant.

Hipsher brings 30 years of collegiate coaching experience to Alabama, 15 of those as a head coach at three different institutions. Additionally he recruited and coached Grant while serving as an assistant at Dayton and later offered Grant his first college coaching position at Stetson University.

In his second season at UA, he helped his former pupil turn a team with an early 5-5 record into one that amassed a 25-12 record and captured the 2011 Southeastern Conference Western Division title. That same squad made UA's first postseason appearance in four seasons and advanced to the NIT finals at New York City's Madison Square Garden.

Along the way, his knowledge and basketball acumen helped turn the team into one of the toughest defensive units in the country while his eye for talent helped UA land a top-five recruiting class.

The veteran coach came to Alabama after spending two seasons as the associate head coach at the University of South Florida. Prior to joining the USF staff, Hipsher was an assistant coach at Arkansas following a nine-year stint as head coach at the University of Akron (1995-2004) where he was named the Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year in 1998 after winning the MAC East Division Championship.

Before rebuilding the Zips' program, he spent two seasons at Stetson, where Grant joined his staff for a season, and earned Trans-America Athletic Conference Coach of the Year honors in 1995. Hipsher began his 15 years as a head coach with a four-year tenure at Wittenberg College where he posted a 97-18 record, three straight conference titles and three NCAA Division III Tournament appearances.

In his 15 seasons as a head coach, he amassed a 238-182 career record and earned conference Coach of the Year honors three times.

In addition to his assistant coaching experiences at USF, Arkansas and Dayton, he also spent time on staffs at Miami (Ohio) and Miami-Dade Community College. Hipsher graduated from Bowling Green State University in 1977 with a bachelor's degree in chemistry and biology. He was a two-time captain and academic All-American for the Falcons.

Hipsher and his wife Sue are the parents of two sons, Andy and Bryan. Andy currently serves as the director of basketball operations at USF. Both played collegiately for their father.

John BRANNEN

John Brannen is in his third season on the Alabama coaching staff as the program's recruiting coordinator after serving in the same role on Anthony Grant's staff at VCU for three seasons.

In his second season at Alabama, he helped guide the Crimson Tide to a 25-12 record and an appearance in the NIT championship game and an SEC Western Division crown. Along the way, the Tide's defense became one of the best in the nation while making Coleman Coliseum one of the most hostile home courts in the country with UA posting a 19-0 record at home.

His efforts in recruiting have also drawn wide acclaim as he helped the Tide land the nation's No. 5 recruiting class in 2011.

While at VCU he helped coach the Rams to three straight conference titles and postseason appearances including two NCAA Tournaments. In addition to his recruiting duties, Brannen focuses on player development, scouting and game preparation. He works particularly close with the Crimson Tide perimeter players.

At VCU he continued to develop his reputation as one of the nation's premier recruiters in landing a recruiting class that was ranked in the top 20 nationally in 2007. He followed that up with a 2008 class that was ranked third among mid-major programs by rivals.com and a 2009 class that was ranked fifth.

In addition to recruiting the Rams' championship teams, he helped coach the program to a 76-25 record in his three seasons with 12 players earning All-Colonial Athletic Association honors including two-time CAA Player of the Year Eric Maynor.

Brannen joined Grant at VCU after spending three seasons in the same capacity at St. Bonaventure, where he was the architect of the program's worldwide recruiting plan to help rebuild the Bonnies' program. In his first recruiting season, Brannen helped add six new student-athletes to the rapidly growing St. Bonaventure program.

Before his stint at St. Bonaventure, he was the top assistant at Eastern Kentucky for three seasons. While there , he recruited back-to-back classes that were ranked in the top 100 nationally, including the school's all time leading scorer. He was also responsible for academic mentoring, scheduling, the program's summer camps, along with strength and conditioning.

He also spent a season at the University of Charleston, helping coach the squad to a 28-4 record and an appearance in the second round of the NCAA Division II Tournament.

A 1996 graduate of Marshall University with a degree in business management, Brannen played under Anthony Grant who was an assistant at Marshall at the time. A standout on both the court and in the classroom, he was a Rhodes Scholar finalist that received postgraduate scholarships from both the NCAA and Southern Conference.

Athletically, he led the SoCon in scoring his senior season (1996-97) by averaging 20.9 points per game and was named the league tournament MVP. He began his collegiate career at Morehead State before transferring to Marshall where he scored 1,008 points in just two seasons.

Following graduation from Marshall, he played two seasons professionally in Belgium's First Division, earning all-star honors and serving as a player-coach. Originally hailing from Covington, Ky., Brannen is married to the former Lisa Elswick. The couple are parents of twin daughters Jaylee and Katelyn.

Tony PUJOL

Tony Pujol begins his third season on the Alabama staff and second as an assistant coach after serving as the program's director of operations in 2009-10.

In his first season as an assistant for the Crimson Tide, he helped guide the squad to a 25-12 record, an SEC Western Division championship and an appearance in the NIT title game. His work with the Tide's defense helped produce one of the toughest defenses in the nation as the Tide surrendered just 59.4 points per game, the eighth lowest average in the nation.

That defensive effort also ranked as one of the best in the history of the Southeastern Conference as the 10th lowest average in SEC history and lowest since 1984. UA's tenacious defense helped make Coleman Coliseum one of the toughest places in the nation to play as the Tide posted a perfect 19-0 home record in 2010-11

On the recruiting trail, Pujol has helped turn Alabama into a national presence. His efforts helped the Tide land a 2011 recruiting class that rivals.com ranked as the fifth-best in the nation with four prospects ranked in the top 100 nationally.

Pujol and Crimson Tide head coach Anthony Grant have a long and dynamic relationship as Pujol served on Grant's staff at VCU for three season. The pair also both hail from Miami, Fla. and began their coaching careers as high school coaches in South Florida.

While at VCU he and Grant coached the Rams to three straight conference titles and postseason appearances including a pair of NCAA berths. Additionally, he worked with 12 all-CAA selections, two-time CAA Player of the Year Eric Maynor and helped recruit a class that was ranked No. 5 among mid-major programs.

Pujol's ties to his native South Florida also helped draw NBA lottery pick Larry Sanders to VCU along with a host of other talented players from the Sunshine State.

Pujol joined Grant's staff after two seasons at Appalachian State where he helped recruit the foundation that led to a school-record 25 wins in 2006-07. Pujol was also instrumental in obtaining the Mountaineers' Public Recognition Award, based on the program's Academic Progress Rate (APR) data released by the NCAA.

Prior to that he was a high school coach in south Florida for 13 seasons, including nine at Northwest Christian Academy in Miami, Fla., where he posted a 250-46 record and won state titles in 1999, 2003, and 2004. Pujol, a south Florida native, graduated from Sterling College (Kansas) in 1989 with a degree in business administration and was a standout in both basketball and baseball, earning all-conference honors in the latter in his final three seasons at Sterling. Pujol and his wife, Mayle, have three daughters, Kasey, Kristen and Mia.

Former Crimson Tide standout Antoine Pettway is in his second season as Alabama's director of operations after serving as an assistant coach at his alma mater for the previous two years.

The Alberta, Ala., native re-joined the Crimson Tide in the summer of 2008 after a two-year stint on the staff at Jacksonville State.

A former Crimson Tide star, Pettway has developed a reputation for building relationships and aids the Tide greatly in its on-campus recruiting efforts. Additionally, he works with the staff to develop players off the court while also assisting in the day-to-day management of the program.

Pettway began his Alabama career as a walk-on with an academic scholarship before earning an athletic scholarship for his sophomore season. He was an integral part of Alabama's 'Elite Eight' run in 2004, starting every game at point guard. That season was the third consecutive in which he led the Tide to the NCAA Tournament after making appearances in 2002 and 2003.

He began his coaching career serving as an office assistant in the UA basketball office while attending graduate school in 2005-06 before accepting the full-time position as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

Following his graduation from the Capstone with a degree in biology, Pettway played professionally for the Huntsville Flight of the NBA Developmental League and the Kentucky Reach of the World Basketball Association. While with the Reach, he was named the league's Rookie of the Year in 2004.

Leading 34-17 coming out of the break, the Tide started the second half with a 10-0 run to lead the Rattlers 44-17 with 17:03 left in the game. Alabama ended up outscoring Florida A&M 18-3 in the first five minutes of the second half.

Nov. 19, 2010 • St. Thomas, USVI
Sports & Fitness Center • 3,122

Alabama dropped its first game of the season, an 83-78 decision to Seton Hall in the first round of the Paradise Jam.

Releford scored nine of his 20 points over the final seven minutes of the game as the Tide made a valiant effort to overcome a 12-point deficit.

IOWA 55

Nov. 20, 2010 • St. Thomas, USVI
Sports & Fitness Center • 2,348

Alabama men's basketball team fell to Iowa, 55-47, in the second round of the Paradise Jam.

Junior forward JaMychal Green led the Crimson Tide with 17 points and eight rebounds. Sophomore forward Tony Mitchell added 13 points and freshman guard Trevor Releford dropped in eight points and grabbed eight rebounds.

After an outstanding shooting performance in the first game of the tournament, Alabama connected on only 33.9 percent of its shots (19-of-56) from the field and 12.5 percent (2-of-16) from beyond the arc. The Tide was unable to overcome its poor shooting, especially with the balanced scoring attack of Iowa (2-2). The Hawkeyes had three players score in double figures led by freshman forward Zach McCabe who came off the bench with 13 points.

The Tide opened the second half on a dunk by Green to tie the game 29-29, however Iowa's next basket gave the Hawkeyes the lead for good. Alabama pulled within one on two Mitchell free throws with 12:17 remaining in the game, but that was as close as they would get the rest of the way.

ALABAMA 49

Nov. 22, 2010 • St. Thomas, USVI
Sports & Fitness Center

Alabama dropped its final game of the Paradise Jam, 50-49 to Saint Peter's Monday in the Paradise Jam finale.

Junior forward JaMychal Green collected 13 points on 4-of-7 shooting from the floor with eight of his points coming in the first half. Sophomore forward Tony Mitchell finished with 15 points, converting on 9-of-11 from the free throw line. Mitchell also finished as the Tide's leading rebounder with six boards.

Alabama suffered offensively, only connecting on 32.5 percent (13-40) from the field. The Tide hit on just 4-for-11 from distance, including missing all five attempts in the second half. Saint Peter's was able to overcome attempting only four free throws in the entire game, compared to Alabama's 19-for-25 effort from the charity stripe, by shooting an impressive 20-for-47 (42.6 percent) from the floor, including 8-of-18 from beyond the arc.

Saint Peter's took a timeout to draw up a play with 22 seconds remaining, and Belin drained a deep jumper to give the Peacocks a 50-49 lead with just 10 seconds left. Alabama called a timeout for one final play, but Mitchell's last-second jumper was no good.

JaMychal Green's tip-in with 0.3 seconds proved to be the difference as the Alabama men's basketball overcame a 12-point second half deficit to defeat cross-state rival Auburn 51-49 in front of a sold-out Coleman Coliseum crowd of 15,383 Wednesday night.

Green finished with a game-high 17 points as the Crimson Tide improved to 19-8 on the season, 11-2 in the Southeastern Conference and a perfect 15-0 at home.

Alabama struggled for much of the game, trailing 41-29 midway through the second half before taking its first lead of the game at the 2:54 mark. Auburn tied the score at 49 with 13 seconds remaining before Green followed up sophomore Tony Mitchell's miss with just three-tenths of a second remaining.

Alabama held an opponent under 50 points for the eighth time in its last 23 games and the second time in SEC play this season. Auburn mustered just one basket from the 11:53 mark to the 2:53 mark of the second half, and just four points overall during that stretch, as the Tide fought its way back into the game.

The University of Alabama men's basketball team closed out the regular season Saturday afternoon with a 65-57 victory over Georgia in a sold-out Coleman Coliseum.

Junior forward JaMychal Green led the way for Alabama (20-10, 12-4 SEC) with a 19-point, nine-rebound performance. Georgia attempted to get back into the game after the half, but Alabama continued to answer. Davis knocked down four shots from beyond the three-point arc in the second half to energize the Tide's offense. Alabama built its largest lead of the game, 56-45, after Green made a layup with 5:52 remaining in the contest.

SEC PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

WENDELL HUDSON • 1973

Wendell Hudson became Alabama's first SEC Player of the Year in 1973 after leading the league in scoring with 20.7 points per game. Hudson led Alabama to a 22-8 record, its most wins in a season at that point, and a second-place finish in the league, its highest finish in the league in 17 seasons. In addition to his scoring, he also pulled down 12.1 rebounds per game. Thanks to his stellar play the Tide made its first postseason appearance in school history with a berth in the NIT and advanced all the way to the Final Four before falling to traditional basketball powerhouse North Carolina.

REGGIE KING • 1978 • 1979

Alabama's all-time scoring leader is also its only two-time SEC player of the year earning the award in 1978 and 1979 from the Associated Press and United Press International. Reggie King averaged more than 21 points per game in both seasons and converted on nearly 58 percent of his shots from the field. In 1979, he scored a school-record 747 points more than any other player in the SEC and led the Tide to 22 wins and another NIT Final Four appearance. A year earlier, he led the league and was fourth in the nation in rebounding with 13.3 per game. King finished his career with 2,168 points, the seventh most in NCAA history.

DERRICK MCKEY • 1987

Derrick McKey was named the SEC Player of the Year in 1987 by the league's coaches, the Associated Press and the United Press International after leading one of the best Alabama teams in school history. While he didn't lead the league in any statistical categories his play led the Tide to the 1987 SEC Tournament title and an appearance in the NCAA Sweet 16. Over the course of the season he averaged 18.6 points and 7.5 rebounds per game as the Tide finished the season ranked No. 9 in the nation. McKey also earned all-tournament honors for the second consecutive season in 1987 and was tabbed the tournament MVP.

ALL-SEC SELECTIONS

From 1933-53, the All-Southeastern Conference was based on play in the SEC Tournament. In 1949, the Associated Press began a separate All-SEC. In 1957, the SEC coaches chose an all-star following the regular season, a trend that continues. UPI picked an All-SEC from the 1966 season through 1991.

ALABAMA IN THE NBA

Alabama has a long and storied tradition of preparing players to compete at the highest level with more than 20 former Crimson Tide student-athletes using their experience at the Capstone to build successful NBA careers. Alabama has seen its stars go on to win nine World Championships, six All-Star selections, six All-Defensive Team honors, three All-Rookie honors and more than $390 million in career earnings on the NBA hardwood. All told, UA players have gone on to suit up in more than 10,000 NBA games and scored more than 90,000 all-time points.

ALABAMA'S SEVEN-TIME NBA WORLD CHAMPION

Any discussion of Alabama's place in the NBA begins and ends with seven-time NBA World Champion Robert Horry. Horry starred at Alabama from 1989-92 before the Houston Rockets selected him with the 11th pick of the 1992 draft. Two years later, he led Houston to the first of back-to-back titles before moving on to Los Angeles where he helped the Lakers to three consecutive titles in 2000, 2001 and 2002. Three seasons later he was with the San Antonio Spurs when they won titles in 2005 and 2007. Only six players in NBA history have won more titles than Horry and he is the first player since 1976 to win more than six titles. He is also just one of two players in NBA history to lead three different franchises to an NBA title. Horry finished his career as the NBA all-time leader in playoff games, appearing in 244 games, seven more than Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Along the way, he set the NBA Finals record for steals in a game with seven against the Orlando Magic in the 1995 Finals. His 261 three-pointers in playoff action rank as the second most in NBA playoff history and his 40 in the Finals are the NBA record.

NBA HONORS AND AWARDS

Alabama has also developed a legacy of producing top-tier NBA talent with four UA players going on to play in a total of seven NBA All-Star games. Latrell Sprewell leads the way garnering All-Star selections in 1994, 1995, 1997 and 2001. His 1994 All-Star selection was the first by a former Crimson Tide player but not the last as he was joined in 2001 by Antonio McDyess. In 2009, Mo Williams became another Alabama product to put on an All-Star jersey while in 2010 Gerald Wallace became the first Charlotte Bobcat to earn the honor.

94 FT

94 FEET BOTH WAYS is the style of play that Alabama head coach Anthony Grant utilizes to put pressure on the opponent on both ends of the court. A basketball court measures 94 feet baseline to baseline and the Crimson Tide is in attack mode, no matter where they are on the court.

QUICKNESS

Alabama led the nation in steals in 2010-11 with 351. Alabama's ENTIRE 2011 starting lineup ranked in the top 10 in steals per game in the SEC. Point guard Trevor Releford led the team with 60 steals on the season.
